

RMWC Verbena Newsletter - President's Message – November 2025

As we head into the busy holiday season, greetings and much gratitude this Thanksgiving to all our lovely members!

Our October luncheon was a celebration of our Past Presidents and most everyone dressed for the occasion. Kudos to our member ladies and many guests getting into the spirit by wearing lavender and sporting a few lavender boas.

After recognizing and toasting our Past Presidents, we welcomed a plethora of new guests, and a new member Susan Ormond installed by 3rd VP Gail Miller!

Our speaker(s) for the luncheon were from the Joshua Tree National Park Foundation. Lexe McCally and Christine Grimes were fill-ins when the executive director had to cancel at the last minute. You would never have known as they tag teamed seamlessly and spoke about our own Joshua Tree National Park. I don't remember ever having as many questions being asked after a visiting speaker. Thank you Lexe and Christine.

In November our speaker will be Priscilla Zamarron from Eisenhower Hospital's SIMS Lab / Robotics. Some of us had the privilege of visiting the SIMS Lab and was given a tour by Priscilla this past summer. I'm certain you will be as fascinated by the topic as we were.

The Rancho Mirage State of the City event was held on October 28th and RMWC was well Represented by our club.

Please reach out to Gala Chair Shannon Shea at SheaEnterprises22@gmail.com if you could Volunteer and/or be a Sponsor for our Gala (or know of someone who would like to be a Sponsor!).

Enjoy the photos from our October Luncheon on our (in progress) new website. A BIG thank you to our ACE photographer Dana Mancigli! You can see more photos on Facebook & Instagram as well!

This year we will be "dining and shopping" at each month's luncheon. Our vendor in October was Ellen's (handmade) Jewelry. In November the vendor will be Tarah Jade, Custom clothing and accessories from Palm Desert.

Happy Thanksgiving to you, your family and friends! May you be healthy and happy this holiday season...

With Much Gratitude and Love

Faye van Boxtel
